Naples, September 3, N. S.

ON the 30th past a large Number of Genoese Vessels, which, during the late War, had traded in this Port with French Colours, and were exempted from being visited, on Notice that the King had taken that Priviledge from them, sailed immediately from hence to avoid the Counterband Goods they had on board being confiscated. On the 1st Instant a Deputation from the Publick went to Court, and presented to his Majesty a Cedula for 650,000 Ducats, and to the Queen one of 50,000, as a free Gift from this Kingdom on the Birth of the Prince of Calabria.

Rome, Sept. 7, N. S. The French Post-Master in this City has notified to the Publick, that the English and French Letters will be distributed and received for the future as usual before the War.

Florence, Sept. 20, N. S. From Lombardy we hear, that the Austrian Regiments daily file off on their Return to Germany. General Pallavicini has taken a Journey from Parma to Vienna, whence he is speedily expected back to Italy.

Hague, Sept. 27, N. S. The States of Holland are daily deliberating about the Affairs of their Finances, and they have at present under their Consideration the Scheme of a Lottery upon the same Plan as the two former, but in which the Number of Tickets is not to be determined, in Hopes of raising thereby a more considerable Sum, by leaving it open to as many Adventurers as please. M. de Catwyck, one of their High Mightinesses Plenipotentiaries at the Congress, and M. Pauw, a Member of the High Court of Justice, are gone to Haerlem, with a Commission from the Prince of Orange to change the Regency of that Town. M. de la Calmette, who was some Time ago appointed their High Mightinesses Resident with the Cantons, set out Yesterday for Switzerland.

Whitehall, Sept. 15. 1748.

Whereas it has been represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, that, on the 6th of this Instant September, one Hugh Coffy was committed to Newgate, on strong Suspicion of Filing and Diminishing Portugal Gold Pieces: And as there is the strongest Reason to believe, that the said Coffy, and several others (who since the said Coffy's Commitment have absconded) have been concerned in Filing the Current Coin of this Kingdom called Guineas, and in dispersing the same: Their Excellencies are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any of the Persons concerned with the said Coffy, as aforesaid, upon his or her discovering one or more of his or her Accomplices; as likewise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, to any Person or Persons, who shall apprehend and take any Person or Persons concerned in Filing and Diminishing the said Current Coin of this Kingdom, so as he, she or they may be convicted of the same.

MRS. Suſannah Vaux, Wife to Mr. Joſeph Vaux, of Fleet Street, Spittal Fields, was on Monday September 5, 1748, taken very ill of a Fever; her Throat was exceſſively ſore, ſo that ſhe could ſcarely ſwallow; her Head was very much confus'd; ſhe could get no Sleep; and on Monday Evening the Skin of her Neck, Breaſt, and almoſt all over her became intenſely red and inflam'd. All theſe increaſed very much till Wedneſday the 7th, when ſhe took a Paper of Dr. JAMES's Fever Powder, at Seven o'Clock in the Evening. In Half an Hour ſhe fell into a profuſe Sweat, which continued till One in the Morning, after which her Head was eaſy, her Throat much better, and ſhe continued gradually mending. At Four in the Morning ſhe purg'd once, and again at Six, after which ſhe ſeem'd perfectly well. On Thurſday at Eleven ſhe took a ſecond Doſe, which operated much in the ſame Manner, and ever ſince ſhe has been perfectly free from her Fever.

As I apprehend my Wife's Caſe was attended with extraordinary Danger, and that her Cure was equally extraordinary, I have deſir'd it might be publiſh'd in the London Gazette for the Benefit of Mankind. Joſeph Vaux.
